The Martin I am hunting for is George W. He was born in Sept., 1848, most likely in Alabama, although some think he came from Philadelphia, Penn. His father's name was George Martin; his mother's name was Catherine Louise, maiden name unknown. According to which Louisiana census is chosen, his parents came from a variety of places: in 1880, it was Prussia for George and Italy for Catherine. In 1900, the birthplace of George and Catherine was Penn. In 1910 the birthplace for George and Catherine was Alabama. A family legend states there were no girls born in this branch of the Martin family for many generations. George W. Martin came to New Orleans in 1863; he was not a Civil War veteran. All of his Louisiana descendants have been accounted for.

Is anyone researching the Martin's and related families living in Independence Co., Ark. 1860-1870? My family was living in Warren Co., Mo. when the Civil War broke out. Tradition says that they, along with a number of allied families, left there and returned to southern Missouri. Where they lived between 1860-1880 has eluded me. Tradition says ca. 1865 Great Uncle George Gillison Martin, his wife whose name nobody remembers, and "a bunch of kin folk" went to Oil Trough, Ark. to get work. Some kind of epidemic struck, and "many in the group" died, including George Gillison's wife. George left his baby girl with a neighbor and walked back to Missouri. His brother Jesse Martin, who had a horse, rode back to Arkansas and brought the baby home. I have recently completed a census study of Independence Co., Ark. and can see that many of the 1860 Martins are fragmented by 1870. No doubt much of this is due to the attrition of war, but I wonder if any other researcher has encountered this phenomenon? Since there is a Bible death date for Great Grandfather Gillison Martin, I speculate "was he with his son and died in the epidemic?" According to census data Baby Georgia Ann was born ca. 1866 and Gillison Martin died 16 Sept. 1866. By the way, the little girl grew up and married Sherman Tecumseh Wheeler, a mixed blood. John Martin and Izabel Newton Martin lived most of their adult lives in Bullock Co., Ga. Izabel and John Martin's daughter, Louisa Martin Cobb, was my great grandmother. I believe that Rhoda Martin was married the first time to William Martin. FROM THE EDITOR

Please make a correction to the will of William Martin of Goochland Co., Va. in Volume X, p. 38. On line 7 of this will the slave given to his son, John Martin, was Ned - not Neo.

In Volume X, p. 44, it was intimated that Stephen Martin who made his will in Amherst Co., Va., 15 Dec. 1768, was the brother of James Martin who married Elizabeth Crawford. I failed to mention that Nancy Martin-Perdue of Madison, Va. made me aware of this possible relationship many years ago.

The Warren County, Kentucky deeds published in Vol. X, #3 were made possible by Joyce Martin Murray, 2921 Daniels, Dallas, Texas 75205. She owns microfilm copies of the deeds and loose papers for Warren County and she let me read her microfilm. She also furnished the Warren County marriages. Joyce is abstracting all of the Warren County deeds and will publish her first book of deed abstracts in the near future.

Clovis Brakebill has loaned me all of his Martin records. He descends from two different Martin families. Benjamin H. Martin married Mary Martin, 10 Feb. 1834 in Barren County, Kentucky. Benjamin and Mary were not related before their marriage. Benjamin H. Martin was the son of Benjamin Martin, born in Fauquier County, Virginia. Mary Martin was the daughter of Charles Martin, born in Amherst County, Virginia, and granddaughter Azariah Martin and Mary Rodes.(See Vol. X, p. 157-161) It was Clovis who gave me the drawing of Benjamin Martin's home in Barren Co., Kentucky.

It has been decided to have two new features in the Martin Family Quarterly: (1) "In Demand Articles from Out of Print Volumes;" (2) "Letters to the Editor." If you are interested in an article that appeared in one of the out of print volumes, just let me know and it will be reprinted as space permits.

I am currently dismantling all of my files and putting all documents and family groups in the proper place. The dream to document every possible Martin family before 1850 is beginning to materialize.

Several years ago I said I would complete an article about Valentine Martin of Cumberland Co., Va. and his Descendants. It is still not quite finished. I began to realize that all the Martin families living in the following counties in Virginia should be proven at the same time - Goochland, Louisa, Albemarle, Fluvanna, Amherst, Nelson, Cumberland, Powhatan, and other nearby counties. Articles concerning Martin families in these counties will begin in Volume XI.

The article concerning Adam and Lewis Martin of Rutherford Co., N. C. and Missouri will be continued in Volume XI as will the Texas Confederate Pension Applications. Also included in Volume XI will be the the continuation of the Goochland Co., Va. deeds and many new features.

I am currently reviewing every query placed in the Martin Family Quarterly. If the answer to your query is in the files you will know by the time Volume XI is completed.

Thank you all for your support of this Martin research. I received a lot of encouragement when I said I was weary. No, I am not going to quit.

I want to publish more photographs, so if you don't send me pictures of your Martins, you are going to have to look at mine. Please send a copy of your photograph that I may keep. I don't want to be responsible for your original.

When copying old photographs or gravestones don't use color film. Color photographs fade and a sharp image can't be achieved when they are offset printed in black and white.

Volume XI will be $15.00. I'll try my best to get future issues ready on time.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

From Mrs. John T. Hamner, Jr., 122 Brittany Drive, San Antonio, Texas 78212.

I am very puzzled about the records of the two John Martins on p. 64 of Volume X...the service attributed to the 2nd John Martin (b. 1739) is identical to my John Martin, b. 1739, serving from Sussex Co., N. J. and dying in Athens Co., Ohio in 1837. The Joseph Martin on page 66, Vol. X, who served in the Sussex Militia in Capt. Harker's company, was Lt. John and Susannah Catlin-Casterlin Martin's son (and my ancestor also). He married Martha Bryson, dau. of William Bryson of Washington Co., Pa. on Jan. 17, 1786; marriage performed by Rev. Thaddeus Dodd, Presby. Min. I have a copy of her deposition for pension, in the 1850's, from Tyler Co. (W) Va. As of now, I am having Joseph Martin's tombstone (at Little's Mills Meth. Ch., Tyler Co.) reset, as it has fallen on its face!

Lt. John Martin's wife died in Tyler Co. (W) Va. about 1820 (Susannah Catlin Martin) and is probably buried at Little's

Mills - a small stone marked "S" is there but that's all I can find.

So, John did not marry Barbara Ann Funfrock and die in Fairfield, Ohio. This is another John and the records must attribute my John's service to this other John.

...I have a copy of Reuben Martin's deposition, in which he states that John was his brother, as well as Col. Ephraim and described the battles in which they all participated.

CORRECTION

Mrs. Hamner is right about all the facts in the above letter. The New Jersey Archives has errors in these compiled service records for Revolutionary Soldiers.

Strike the last four lines of the abstract concerning the 4th John Martin on page 64 of Vol. X of the Martin Family Quarterly. This John Martin, b. 1739 in Sussex, 1st Lt. in Capt. William Bond's Co., Col. Ephraim Martin's Regt. didn't marry Barbara Ann Funfrock. Another John married her.

This fourth John Martin on page 64, was born 23 Oct. 1739, d. 14 May 1837, Athens Co., Ohio. He married Susannah Catlin. This John Martin was the son of Ephraim Martin and the brother of Ephraim, Edmond and Reuben Martin.

Additional Information

Volume X, p. 66: (third Joseph Martin on the page, pvt. in Capt. Harker's Co., 2nd Regt., Sussex Co., N. J. Militia). Joseph was a son of Lt. John Martin and Susannah Catlin (Casterlin). He was the ancestor of Mrs. Hamner. Joseph Martin married Martha Bryson, daughter of William Bryson of Washington Co., Pa., 17 Jan. 1786, by Rev. Thaddeus Dodd, a Presbyterian minister. She lived in Tyler Co., Va. in 1850.

Abstracts of the Revolutionary pension applications of John Martin and his son, Joseph Martin, can be found on page 66 and 69 of Volume VI of the Martin Family Quarterly.

There was also an excellent article concerning this family in Volume III of this quarterly. The article was written by Mrs. Donald Webster, Arnold, Kansas.

Mrs. Hamner, Mrs. Webster, and Lou Mohler of Washington, Pa. have done extensive research on the Martin family in New Jersey and an article is being prepared for a future issue.

THE FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY OF MARTIN

Our Martin cousins in England are publishing an excellent journal. They have subscribers who are "stuck" in the 1800's, but also have documented Martins in 1066.

The current president of the Family History Society of Martin: Vice Admiral Sir John and Lady R. A. Martin. They have vice presidents in the United Kingdom, Canada, South Africa, New Zealand and Australia.

The secretary of their society, which was founded in January of 1980, is Lionel William Martin Nex. Mr. Nex compiles the journal and the current issue is Volume 2, Serial Number 9, January 1985.

Even if you don't know who your Martin immigrant was their journal is fun to read. We are fortunate to exchange publications with the Family History Society of Martin. This society published a booklet to commemorate the first gathering of Martins at Athelhampton, Dorchester, Dorset which was held on Saturday, 18th July, 1983.

Mrs. G. M. Foster wrote "An Introduction to Martin Armorial Bearings" for their Commemorative Booklet: "...The history of the Martin family has been called the history of England in cameo. This is certainly true of the arms borne by those of this name. Martin, in its various forms, as spelt on the front of our Journal, is a fairly common name; far too common to assume kinships automatically." (The spellings on the front of their journal are - Martinn-Martine-Martyn-Merton-Marten-Martyne-Marteine).

"It is the practice of the modern day English heralds to grant quite different coats to those of the same name, but no kinship, the system in Scotland being somewhat different. The most well known coat for this name, 'Argent, two bars gules,' is recorded on the Falkirk Roll of 1298, for Sir William Martyn, one of the knights banneret who rode with Edward I in his expedition against the Scots on that occasion. These arms are also used for the town of Newport, Pembrokeshire, commemorating Lord Nicholas FitzMartin, who incorporated the town in the early 13th century. This coat is also recorded for the names of Maruduit and Mainwaring, and seen displayed at Breakspear House Ruislip, for the former, and in Chester Cathedral for the latter."

"...The additions and variations on this Martyn theme are many, using cadency marks for members of the same branch, then changes in colour, extra objects added to the shield and in one instance the addition of a third bar. The most distinctive difference is the changing of the background of the shield to gold and the addition on the first bar of a tiny ermine escutcheon, for Sir William Martyn, Lord Mayor of London in 1492 and a freeman of the Skinners' Company whose arms are an ermine shield. These arms are recorded published works, in three Harleian manuscripts at the British Museum, but are actually displayed at the Skinner's Hall with the escutcheon in the top left hand corner of the shield. Incomplete instructions given to the painter?, who can say?"

"Of the 130 odd coats recorded by our Society, forty-three of them involve the basic two or three bars with variations and of this number only two have not come to light in the usual published sources."

Another article in the Commemorative Booklet of the Family History Society of Martin by E. A. Martin, Esq., B.Sc. reports, "The surname Martin can exist in many variant forms, my own family is known to have used, over the last four hundred years, the forms Martin, Martine, Martyn, Martayne, Martayn, Martane and Marten. Fashions are discernible, however in the various forms used: the form with the final 'i' was used throughout the period, but the 'a' forms were only used in the 17th Century and the 'e' form was mainly used in the 18th Century. Within Cornwall a geographical distinction can be seen in the distribution of Martin and Martyn, strongly suggesting the existence of geographical as well as temporal fashions in surname spellings."

To subscribe to the Journal of the Family History Society of Martin write: Lionel William Martin Nex, 21 Lyndhurst Road, Exmouth, Devon, England EX8 3DS. The price of their journal for overseas subscribers is 3 pounds. (ask your bank about rate of exchange).

Several years ago I wrote to Mr. Nex and told him what we wanted - to identify all of our Martin immigrants. I told him we needed to know who they were, where they came from in England and when they came to America. I hope Mr. Nex knew I was half joking.

Cooperation with the Family History Society of Martin will give us more knowledge about the origin of our name. Mr. Nex says there are four possibilities for the origin of our name:

1. Through descent from those Martins of early generations, eventually traceable to Martinus de Walis and wife, Geva.
2. From a Martin who emigrated to the U. K. such as Huguenots and Flemings.
3. Through an ancestor who adopted the surname of Martin.
4. Through an acestor who was 'given' the surname Martin at his baptism. The surname was given to orphans who were baptized in a church which was/is dedicated to St. Martin, one particular example being the Church of St. Martin in the Fields.
